Introduction

The NetFile E-Filer System

The NetFile e-filer system is designed to allow users to enter all the transactions needed to fill out disclosure statements for filing electronically as well as on paper. Transactions include contributions, disbursements, loans and bills. The e-filing system stores this information for future use allowing the user to add, edit and delete information in reference to the disclosure statement being filed. Once e-filed, a paper copy of this disclosure statement can be printed allowing the user to hand in an exact duplicate of the e-filed document in paper form to their filing authority. The system is not designed to provide extra reports or banking functions beyond getting disclosure statements filed.

NetFile will continue to update and refine this e-filer system and we welcome comments or suggestions. Contact us at filerhelp@netfile.com.

Requirements

The e-filer system is a web-based service allowing anyone with internet access to use the system.

System requirements and required software

- Any computer with internet access.

Document Index

The Document Index is where all disclosure statements from your account are created, viewed and e-filed. A paper copy that you can file with your filing authority can be printed from here as well.

E-Filing Process

The process for e-filing a disclosure statement through NetFile is:

1. Create a new Disclosure Statement which is based on all the information entered into your account up to the date of creation of the draft disclosure statement. At this point the Disclosure Statement is a draft version.
2. The draft Disclosure Statement is placed in View Draft Disclosure Statements for review.
3. If the draft Disclosure Statement is acceptable, proceed to e-file the statement.
4. If the draft Disclosure Statement is not acceptable, and changes need to be made to the transactions in your system, delete the draft statement and make the necessary account changes and create a new draft disclosure statement.
5. Once a disclosure statement has been e-filed correctly:
   a. A copy is placed in View E-filed Disclosure Statements.
   b. A copy is sent to your filing authority.
   c. A copy with no addresses (redacted copy) is placed on the public viewing section of your filing authority's e-filing system.

Create New Disclosure Statements

1. On the left navigation bar, click on Document Index.
2. Click on Create Disclosure Statements.
3. Click on FPPC Form 460.

Note: At this time the FPPC Form 460 is the only choice for the type of disclosure statements to create. As other disclosure statements come on line, they will be added to this list.

4. Start and end date. Enter for the period covered in the report. Enter dates in the MM/DD/YYYY format.
5. Disclosure Statement Filing Date. Defaults to today's date. Change accordingly.

6. Date of the election. Enter if you are filing this statement as a pre-election statement in connection with an election.
7. Type of Statement. Select from the drop-down list.
8. Sort Order. Optional. Select the sort order (by date or name) of the transactions being placed on the disclosure statement.
9. Amendment. If the report is an amendment enter the amendment number. If this is the first amendment for the disclosure statement, enter '001'. If this is the second amendment, enter '002' etc.
10. Amendment Description. If the report is an amendment, enter a brief description of the reason for the amendment (up to 300 characters).
11. Starting Date Override. Enter the start date for calculating cumulative Column B totals.

Caution: Only complete this field if instructed by a filing official.

12. E-mail address. Optional. Enter a valid e-mail address to be notified by e-mail when your draft document is ready for reviewing from Document Index – View Draft Disclosure Statements.
13. Click Create Draft Report. Once the disclosure statement is finished it is placed into the Document Index – View Draft Disclosure Statements.

Note: Depending on how large the report is, the creation of the disclosure statement could take a few seconds to several minutes. You can leave this screen and continue working in your account.

View Draft Disclosure Statements

The draft disclosure statement is a 'snapshot' of the transactions in your account at the time it was created.

Caution: If changes were made to the data after the creation date of the report and these changes need to be reflected in this disclosure statement then you will need to create a new disclosure statement.

To view a draft disclosure statement:

1. On the left navigation bar, click on Document Index.
2. Click on View Draft Disclosure Statement.

3. A list of disclosure statements available for review/e-filing is shown.
4. To review the disclosure statement, click on the link to the statement itself (Figure 34).

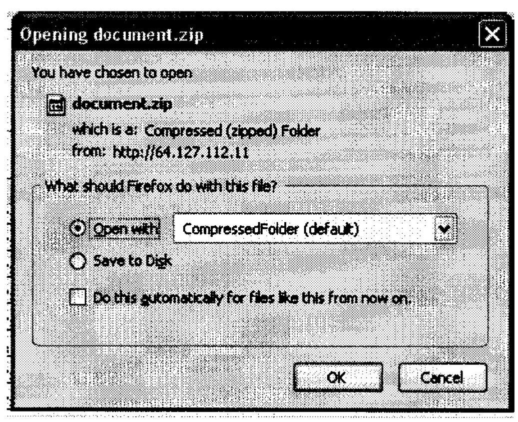
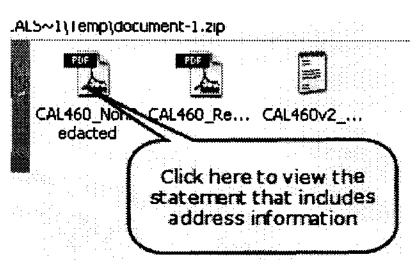
Note: If you have recently created the draft statement you want to review and it is not showing on the list, click on Refresh Page.

5. After clicking on the statement, the following screen displays as the disclosure statement is in a compressed file. Click OK and the folder unzips. If the folder does not unzip you will need to download and install a compression utility program. See Requirements.



6. There are 3 different files inside of the compressed file:



a. CAL460_NonRedacted.PDF

   The non-redacted version of the disclosure statement. This file is the one to open and review as all the address information is viewable.

b. CAL460_Redacted.PDF

   The redacted version of the disclosure statement. This copy of the disclosure statement is placed on the public site. It is identical to the non-redacted version except that there is no address information due to privacy issues.

c. CAL460v2.01.00.txt

   This is the actual e-filing file but is only used by those filers who have an obligation to file with the California Secretary of State. You will need to use a third party software program to e-file this with the Secretary of State since their e-filing system is not compatible with the NetFile e-filing system.

7. Double click on the non-redacted file and it will open in your PDF Viewer.

Note: If the file does not open in a PDF viewer you will need to download and install a PDF Viewer. See Requirements.

8. If you wish to print the statement, print a copy from your PDF viewer to your local printer. If this copy is correct, close the PDF viewer and the compressed file and you are returned to the draft section of your account. Continue to section E-File Draft Disclosure Statement.

Caution: Once a disclosure statement is acceptable and ready to e-file, we recommend that you delete all other draft copies of this document from your document index draft section to avoid e-filing an incorrect copy by mistake. Click on the trash icon next to the document to delete it.

5. If accepted, a copy is placed in View E-filed Disclosure Statements for a record. This final copy (the non-redacted version) should be printed, signed and filed with your local filing authorities. The e-filed version and the paper version are identical.
6. If rejected, make the appropriate changes in your account; create a new draft document and e-file again.

Caution: Until your e-filed document is accepted and a copy is placed in your Document Index-View E-filed Disclosure Statements, it has NOT been e-filed. It is the responsibility of the filer to insure the filing was accepted and e-filed.

Create an Electronic Amendment

A previously e-filed disclosure statement can be amended electronically.

Note: The amendment that is e-filed is not a partial amendment (showing only the data that was corrected and/or added) but a full amendment (showing both the original and amended data without differentiation). To file a partial amendment you must file a paper amendment.

To file an amendment electronically:

1. Edit the data in your system that was incorrect and/or add data that was omitted.

2. On the left navigation bar, click on Document Index.
3. Click on Create Disclosure Statements.
4. Click on FPPC Form 460.
5. Enter the start and end dates that correspond to the original statement that is being amended.
6. The disclosure statement Filing Date defaults to today's date. Change if necessary.
7. Select the type of statement from the drop-down list that corresponds to the statement that is being amended.
8. Type the correct amendment number. The system does not check the number sequencing of any prior amendments. If this is the first amendment for the disclosure statement, enter '001'. If this is the second amendment, enter '002' etc.

Note: To change the default amendment number, either highlight the '000' and type in '001' or '002' etc (remember to add the leading zeroes otherwise the number entered will be '100' or '200' etc), or place your cursor before the '0' to be changed and type in the correct number.

9. Type a brief description of the reason for the amendment (up to 300 characters). This explanation prints on Section 2 of the 460 Cover Page.
10. Type a valid e-mail address to be notified by e-mail when your draft amendment document is ready for reviewing from Document Index – View Draft Disclosure Statements.
11. Click Create Draft Report. Once the amended disclosure statement is finished it is placed into the Document Index – View Draft Disclosure Statements.
12. View the draft amendment. Follow the instructions for View Draft Disclosure Statements.
13. E-file the amendment. Follow the instructions for E-File Draft Disclosure Statement.
14. To view the e-filed amendment, follow the instructions for View E-Filed Disclosure Statements.
